Translations:

A Wee Deoch An Doris – Scots Gaelic

Land and clime
Forgather
Aye
Good night
A wee deoch and doris A wee drap that's a'
Gang awa'
But and ben Ye ah
Braw bricht moonlicht nicht A'richt ye ken Skirlin

A Small Drink At The Door

land and climate are gathered always good night
a last drink at the door, the last drink before we part a small drop that's all go away
a two-roomed cottage you all it's a love bright moonlight night alright you know (you are alright to have another drink) squealing or wailing

Siuil a Ruin – Irish

Siuil, siuil, siuil a ruin Siuil go sochair agus siuil go ciuin Siuil go doras agus ealaigh liom

Walk My Love

walk, walk, walk my love Walk easily and walk calmly Walk to the door and elope with me
