Translations

El-Helwa Di (Arabic) This Beautiful One

The beautiful one woke up to knead dough early in the morning
And the rooster crows: "ku ku ku ku" at early dawn.
Let us go on and make our living by the name of God, oh, workers!
May your morning be a good one, oh, Master Ateyya.

This morning came, oh dear Lord,
And there is not a penny in the pocket
But the mood is calm and peaceful
Among the mistreated workers.

Patience has gone on for too long
Due to the constant bad situation.
You, who have a lot of money,
The poor people also have a generous God.

Hands together, Abu Salah,
Because you will live happily trusting in God.
Rely upon the Lord
Come on, time is passing.

The sun is rising, and everything belongs to God!
Go seek your living, count on God.
Go carry your shovel and tools and let us go.

Hold yourself strong, Abu Salah,
Fight hard and you will live quiet!
Rely upon the Lord
Come on, the time is passing.

Gloria (Latin) Glory

Gloria in excelsis Deo
Glory in the highest to God

Et in terra pax
And on earth peace

Hominibus bonae voluntatis
To men of good will

Jubilate omnes terra
Sing joyfully all the earth

Jubilate omnes gentes in Domino
Sing joyfully all people in the Lord

Benedicite nomen ejus
Bless his name

Murasame (Japanese) The Mist of Evening

Murasame No
The rain, which fell from passing showers

Tsuyu mo mada hinu
Like drops of dew, lies still
