PARODIES* (Masked Songs)

Africa

Words by Luminosa

I heard my phone ringing in the night.
You wake me to listen to your idle conversation.
Why don't you just get out of sight.
I hate the way you put me in a state of aggravation.
I wish that you would stay away.
All that you bring is long forgotten words and painful memories.
You turned to me as if to say, I wish there was something I could do.

S'gonna take a lot to get you away from me.
There's at least a hundred other fish in the sea.
I'll send you all the way to Africa.
It's gonna take no time to end the love we never had. Oo..

I hear his cries roar out in the night.
He grow restless longing for some solitary company.
He knows what he did wasn't right.
As sure as a boy bands break up occurs, it's just like you and me.
I seek to cure what's deep inside, frightened of this thing that we've become.

Just take a plane down to Africa.
I'll send you all the way to Africa.
Just take a plane down to Africa.
You've been a pain so go to Africa.
It's gonna take no time to end the love we never had. Oo..

Help Me! I'm Cleanin'!

Words by Virsonum

Just some messy teens. Wearin' only dirty jean,
They never wash their clothes, stinky underwear.

Just a lazy boy, never doin' any chores.
Sit in my room all day don't go anywhere.

A swiffer in a dusty room, a smell of dirty Fruit Of The Loom.
Drinking soda playing games all night it goes on and on and on and on.

Sweeping, mopping, cleaning out the bowl of lard,
This vacuum, useless on this floor
Warappers, laundry, lyin' all around the room.
Somewhere is this floor.

On your feet for goodnes sake. Some days I need a break.
Doin' anything to play minecraft just one more time.
Some will win, some will snooze
Some were born to clean bathrooms.
Oh, this cleaning never ends, it goes on and on and on and on.

Help me! I'm cleanin'!
Grab a broom and start sweepin'.
Dust is getting in my nose.
Help me!

Bohemian Parody

Words by Polyphony

Is this the real song. Is this a parody.
Caught in a day dream, no escape to reality.
Open your eyes, look up to the light, say cheese.
I'm just a poor boy, I have six cavities.
Hey are you hearing us, sing that? Do we sound a little flat?
Any way the song goes, doesn't really matter to me, to me.

Mama, this song has changed,
sends shivers down my spine, lyrics shifting all the time.
Someone come and help me. I've lost my mind,
Gotta leave this song behind and change the words.
Mama, oo, (any way the song goes)
I'm not gonna lie. I sometimes wish I'd never wrote songs at all.

I see a little silhouetto of a man,
Scary moose, scary moose, what is that a flamingo.
Balding heads and diamonds, very very shiny see.
Aliens, aliens, aliens, aliens alines, dinosarus.
We do not know.
I'm just a writer, this is confusing.
He's not a writer, this is not confusing.
Spare him his life from this monstrosity.
Easy come, easy go, do our words have flow?
This choir! No! We don't have any flow. Where's the flow!
Monsters! We will not let you go. Let him go!
Corona! We still might have it though. Allergies!
Song just needs to go. Let me go!
Song just needs to go. Stop the show!
No, no, no, no, no, no, no!
Oh social distance, social distance, social distance you must go.
Tricounty health has a vaccine put aside for me, for me, for me.

So you think you can trick me and sing the wrong words.
So you think you can sing me the worst song I've heard.
Oh baby, this songs driving me crazy.
Just gotta get out, just gotta get right outta here.

Oo. Oo yeah, oo yeah.
Nothing really matters, none of us can sing.
Nothing really matters, nothing really matters to bees.
Any way the song goes.
Bzzzzzz.

Under the Rainbow

Words by SoVoce & Mr. M.

Somewhere under the rainbow way down low,
There's a land that you've heard of not Kansas, but our own Vernal.
Somewhere under the rainbow skies are blue,
Unless there's an inversion then they're a greyish hue.
Some days I look and see real far because the clouds are floating far behind me,
But then I go and turn around and clouds before my eyes abound,
It seems the sun likes hiding.
Somewhere under the rainbow, bluebirds fly.
Not just blue though there's black, red, green, unless you are color blind.
We all know that most birds can fly, but ostrich can't,
I think you know why.
